The Georgia Employer Committee is dedicated to enhancing the employment related services provided by the Georgia Department of Labor and to facilitate communication and cooperation towards maintaining a strong partnership between the Department of Labor and the business community of Georgia.

State and local committees have been recognized on a national and international level as being one of the best partnerships between government and private business. Employer committees put a fresh spin on the best local resources that government has to offer.

Early Bird registration for the summit is $40. After October 12, fee is increased to $50 (both online and at the door). Lunch is included in the registration fee. No refunds.

The Georgia Department of Labor GDOL works to grow the economy and workers’ positions within it. Mark Butler became Georgia’s ninth Commissioner of Labor on January 10, 2011. As the first Republican to head the Georgia Department of Labor, Commissioner Butler is committed to reshaping the operations of our labor department. Voted as one of the 100 most Influential Georgians, he is focused on improving GDOL’s relationship with employers, job seekers and Georgia’s future workforce. Hear from Commissioner Butler as he shares valuable information on current GDOL initiatives and programs.

Unemployment Insurance Get an accelerated course on Unemployment Insurance Tax, Benefits and Appeals information. Learn about new projects and updates as they move forward. Don’t miss this opportunity to ask the experts, Bruce “Bo” Medders and Debra Wardlow, UI Policy and Procedures Analysts, about the things every employer should know about the Unemployment Insurance System in Georgia.

Social Media Social Media is the water cooler of modern times and the new word of mouth marketing. Social Media is a moving target. Understanding its benefits and how it can best be utilized is imperative to business. Hear from our expert Amanda Trice Lucey, as she delves into Social Media in the workplace.
